

Britain in Bloom

Launch event February/ March

Competitions

- Design a poster
- Hanging baskets

Potential Bilston locations worthy of visiting

- Bilston Craft Gallery Garden Club
- Peascroft Wood
- Bilston town hall
- Orphan sites: Methodist Church green space and beside Conservative Club
- Police station: hanging baskets?
- St Mary's Church
- Methodist Church
- St Martins
- Citizens advice bureau
- St Leonards Church

Potential organizations to involve

- Princes trust
- YWCA
- Schools
- Youth Offending team (community give back hours to aid with clean ups)
- Probation services (community give back hours to aid with clean ups)

Sponsorship Monetary/in-kind help

- Morrisons
- Robin 2

Portfolio

- Not required for neighbourhood entry
- Judges have recommended images being on hand to show before and after developments to help show extent of achievements throughout the year.

2009 neighbourhoods

- Sandy lane allotments
- Boundary Way Allotments
- Graisle Court
- Highfields School Scientific and Environmental centre
- Dickens Lodge
- Coven Lodge
- Blakenhall

LNP involvement in 2009

- Blakenhall. Activities that took place between 1st June to 2nd July.
  - Phoenix Park
  - Bromley Street Open Space
  - St Luke's School
  - Eco Homes.
  - herb sanctuary at The Haven (sheltered housing scheme for the elderly)
  - sunflower corner at Christian Life Centre
  - Blakenhall in Bloom motif in Bromley Street Open Space
  - teddy bears picnic in Phoenix Park
  - children from Graiseley School are designing 'Bags for Life' that residents will be able to buy in the near future, to name but a few

Contact:

Emma Cleary, Floral City Coordinator for 2010

Emma Cleary, Development & Promotions Officer for Tourism

emma.cleary@wolverhampton.gov.uk

01902 551069